GOVERNOR SETS RECORD
MOUNTAIN HOME (AP) — Idaho Gov. Don W. Samuelson is credited with a national first, the first state executive to have flown in excess of 1,000 miles per hour in an RF-4C aircraft.

One-half miles east of Burley on U.S. Highway 20, the Governor, in his first official airplane, the highway in front of him, was traveling west, driven by Sherman H. Brewster, 34, 2058 Burley.

The President said the tax increase was urgently needed to stave off economic chaos. But he previously contended any budget plan exceeding $1 billion would be against the nation's interest.

The presidential news conference also produced sobering reports about more heavy fighting ahead in Vietnam, along with continued propaganda, infiltration and terror by the North Vietnamese and no substantive peace talks.

President Johnson, in Texas for the holiday weekend, promised to continue to explore every avenue toward a just and honorable peace.

"If Israel will take responsive action," he said, "we are ready to go far, far with them, and with others, to reduce the violence and build a stable peace in Southeast Asia."

Great French Strike Wave Is Easing Under Countermeasures

PARIS (AP) — The great French strike wave seemed to be receding today under the countermoves of President Charles de Gaulle. The head of state, following up his dissolution of the National Assembly, named a new government with Georges Pompidou back as prime minister.

Reports of a back-to-work movement followed from all parts of the country, except the Riviera. These covered mostly small plants or partial resumption of activity in other fields.

However, Automobiles Peugeot S.A. announced it will resume work next Tuesday at all its plants in the Paris area, Mulhouse and Vesoul.

Pierre Messmer was returned as defense minister and former other big key industries showed no signs of a break, but minister of agriculture.

There were five notable changes in the cabinet. The minister of finance and economy, Louis Joxe, justice minister, Georges Corge, minister of information, and Francois Missotte, minister for sports and youth affairs, Alain Peyrefitte, education minister, resigned last week.

The first-round of elections for a new National Assembly was set for June 23.

Rene Capitant, a left-wing Gaullist who criticized Pompidou last week, was named justice minister.

Raymond Marcellin, an independent Republican who has been minister for economic and institutional planning, was named interior minister to protect the public order over the next four days of the dissolution of the National Assembly.

Two gasoline companies, men marching through Paris announced they were starting to Thursday night in a massive demonstration in his behalf.

Activity in the Alsace — It was too early to tell the ultimate outcome, but lines were reported almost back to normal, drawn after two weeks of chaos except for the railways. Mail and telephone services ceased.

Viet Cong Press On Saigon

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong troops pressed hard on two sides of Saigon today in a new outburst of fighting in the capital and two other major prawning areas of the sprawling Tan-Son-Nhu air-base.

Other "enemy" forces trained big Russian guns for the first time on allied bases in the central highlands.

There were no immediate details of a reported rocket attack near Tan-Son-Nhu.

Enemy pressure was maintained as North Vietnamese and U.S. negotiators met for the sixth session of cease-fire talks in Paris.

In a news conference, the U.S. Embassy after the session, he said, "public opinion in the world will be brought to see that we can bring about a settlement to the war, as President Johnson has said."

Rain Won't Stop "Poor" Marches

WASHINGTON (AP) — Near-constant rain for two weeks hasn't stopped the "poor people's" campaign's march into a 16-acre mudhole but the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy says the weather won't stop the demonstrations.

The rain fell again Thursday but, Abernathy, campaign leader and president of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, told reporters, "I'm sure it will clear up. It can't get much worse."

He vowed the demonstrators will stay in Washington until Congress meets their demands for massive programs to help the poor.

Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr. visited the encampment for the poor.

The rain has made one great mudhole of Resurrection City, the shanties near the Lincoln Memorial serving as temporary home for some 2,000 demonstrators.

But Abernathy said there are enough extra beds and tents now that his own Africamp shelter is ready, and his wife will move in today.

Peace Talks Bring Sharper War Action

By JOHN T. WHEELER
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S.-North Vietnamese talks in Paris have brought sharper action in the Vietnam war. Like two wrestlers, the two sides grope for holds that will lead to a spectacular throw.

The U.S. Command has predicted a further escalation in fighting and latest allied intelligence sources say that the outcome is still not clear at this point.

U.S. sources have said privately that it is likely to score a decisive victory in the near future.

Thus neither can bargain in Paris from a position of absolute strength that would force concessions.

Many in Saigon recall former Ambassador Henry Cabot

Lodge's recommendation to President Johnson when there were hints that peace talks might start. Lodge recommended increasing the pressure on the enemy to the maximum should Hanoi or the Viet Cong show real signs of wanting peace. Even the most minor concession, Lodge urged, should not be agreed to unless a counter concession was made.

These more "bitter" battles, higher casualties—probably the largest of the war on both sides—and claims of decisive victories are forecast. Indications are that each side also will place increasing importance on victory claims, not only to strengthen the hands of its bargainers in Paris but to convince the world that its side is winning.

The idea, it is believed here, will be to generate pressure from allies and friends on both sides to make concessions that would bring a settlement on the best possible terms.

The U.S. Command is highly conscious of sentiment in the United States and has become increasingly sensitive in its public relations.

When a U.S. Special Forces camp at Kham Duc was threatened with being overrun recently, a hasty evacuation of the camp was ordered. A U.S. general called this an American victory.

Bur-Kham Duc is an astride a major infiltration route that North Vietnamese engineers are turning into a two-lane road. Evacuating the camp left the enemy with a free hand in the area.

On the other hand, Hanoi has boasted of huge victories against the allies in the Salagon area during fighting earlier this month. In fact the enemy forces were mostly turned back at the "slim belt" along its outer lines.

The most likely battle zones of the future probably are around Salagon, below the demilitarized zone, and the central highlands. Rocket and infantry attacks around Salagon prove that the enemy command is capable of piercing the U.S. shield around the capital.

Rupert Hosts Holstein Show

On Saturday

RUPERT — Rupert has been selected to host the state Holstein show and dairy meeting at the Minidoka County Fairgrounds. This is the second consecutive year that Rupert has hosted the event.

"Saturday's event, the second annual state Holstein show will climax district judging which will continue all day this week. The district show was held Friday in Rupert."

Judging began at noon and included animals exhibited by the 11 registered Holstein breeders in the county, as well as the entire district. Harry Papageorge, a prominent Holstein breeder and competitor, is judging the district show.

Mrs. Louis Bott, secretary for the state Holstein association, said over 100 top animals are expected for the state show. Both male and female animals will be judged in the various classes and age groups, as in the county fair.

A junior division will select the top junior showman. Trophies, donated by various businesses and Holstein breeders, will be presented to the winners of each class.

Reed Lewis, Rupert, is the state chairman for the Holstein association.

Red Colonel Defects And Reveals Plan

SAIGON (AP) — The second highest ranking Viet Cong ever to defect told a news conference today the enemy would keep up his attacks on South Vietnam's cities to improve North Vietnam's negotiating hand at the Paris talks.

Colonel Mau, 38, defected May 7 after his regiment got orders to fight in the second offensive this year against Saigon.

He said the current Communist strategy "consists of a very long schedule composed of many offensives, all aimed at supporting the talks being held in Paris."

"The presence of North Vietnamese troops in the South is clear to everyone," he said. "But the denial of that at the Paris talks 'has disadvantages.'

"It creates suspicion among the rank and file of the Viet Cong and among the population of the North. They ask themselves if other things the party says are true or not."

Mau said the Viet Cong would continue to shell the cities of South Vietnam "to show their power and to scare the world that they are still strong."

Before the Tet offensive against Saigon and 35 other populated centers in February, Mau said, most rank and file Viet Cong troops believed the people would rise up to support them.

"After the offensive we didn't believe that any more," he said. "We didn't have the support of the population, and the allied forces were stronger."

Mau said he decided to defect because his fellow Communists were not being fulfilled. He had disagreements with his superiors and he found the Communist dogma a deceptive.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Fidel Castro, once the idol of the New Left, is no longer a revolutionary hero even to students in Latin America.

In Paris, West Berlin, Rome and New York, rioting students and long-forgotten anarchists and terrorists like Bakunin and Nekhayev.

In Communist Czechoslovakia

and Poland, on the other hand, students and intellectuals fighting for freedom cheered the American flag. Soviet writers on trial for their beliefs have been given the right to dissent on decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.

But no one, East or West, remembered that Fidel Castro also considers himself a revolutionary "prophet." Even in Latin America, Cuba's bearded Leader Maximo has become the world's most popular man.

To remind the world that he is still in the revolutionary business, Castro recently issued a renewal call for guerrilla struggles in Latin America under the slogan, "Arms, money and teams of guerrillas to liberate Latin America."

But this call was ignored, primarily because Russia, for the moment at least, is more interested in profitable trade with the Latin-American capitalists than in world revolution.

As a result, the conflict between pro-Soviet and pro-Cuban Communists in the Western Hemisphere has become more intense.

The most striking examples of this are in Venezuela and Guatemala, where a handful of pro-Castro guerrillas have recently been expelled from the official pro-Russian Cuban embassy. Similar conflicts are now raging in Brazil, Nicaragua, Chile, the Dominican Republic and other Latin-American countries.

There is no doubt that Castro's eclipse is due to his quarrel with Moscow. The existence of his dictatorship depends on Russia's economic aid. But he believed that he could do the Khrushchev line to undermine Latin America's influence in Latin America and still get their help.

Castro has perhaps gone further than any other national Communist leader in exploiting for his own purposes the political possibilities offered by the Russian break with Red China and the fragmentation of the Red monolith.

But the Russians were not frightened. They met Castro's challenge by applying a calculated measure of economic pressure, and found an opportunity in the prolonged and tortuous negotiations over a new Soviet-Cuban trade agreement.

The Russians never made a secret of the fact that they consider economic aid primarily as a political weapon.

But this agreement to a flow of aid and trade to Havana sufficient to preserve Moscow's role as the mainstay of Castro's regime, but not enough to meet Cuba's rapidly expanding needs.

The Cubans must meet their growing economic problems with a series of bold-lightning austerity measures.

By applying economic pressure—the Russians obviously want to keep the Cuban dictator busy at home. But Castro is still fighting back. He is still trying to meet the Russians' challenge with a "political jihad."

Even the failure of Che Guevara's military adventure in Bolivia has not abated Cuban efforts to keep the pot boiling in Latin America.

But for the present, at least, Castro's star is in eclipse. Even revolutionary dictators must feed their hungry subjects.

New Approach

Robert Barton, administrator of Cassia and Minidoka County Memorial Hospitals, has come up with a commonsense solution to the payment of medical bills. He will arrange financing for the patient.

This approach takes on new meaning, and increased emphasis in the day of rising medical costs.

Hospitals—and Magic Valley Memorial is no exception—are faced with balance sheets in the red each year because patients will not or cannot pay their bills.

Insurance has helped a great deal, but it does not carry the patient all the way.

Many times an illness strikes when the patient is least able to afford it. Quite often medical bills incurred in a hospital are more than the average person is able to afford.

To help, financing is a valuable asset and with the cooperation of the First Security Banks in Rupert and Burley, Mr. Barton was able to create a financing plan for the patient.

Mr. Barton sold recently 30 per cent of the patients admitted to either of the two county hospitals he runs—cannot or will not pay their bills. Many enter the hospitals under assumed names or false addresses, creating still more problems. He said the hospitals had a loss of about $450,000 during the last six years because of patient failure to pay bills.

Community hospitals cannot afford to operate in this manner. But without some type of financing plan, there was little that could be done.

Now, with financing, a patient can enter Cassia or Minidoka Memorial and with a token payment assure the hospital the bill will be paid.

It is sad, that is true, that any hospital has to act in such a fashion.

But contrary to popular belief, a hospital is not bound to accept a patient on any basis. There are rules, and a hospital in order to survive must enforce those rules.

In the long run, it is in the best interests of the community. If a hospital has to close its doors, the entire community loses. If a hospital has to charge one patient more than another, someone loses.

With a good financing plan, such as the one which will begin Saturday in Cassia and Minidoka counties, everyone wins.

Mr. Barton and the officials of the First Security Bank are to be complimented.

MR. SPECTATOR

More About The Hippies

Interest in the Hippie Movement is both real and active among many of the residents of Magic Valley. And if opinions expressed in letters received by Mr. Spectator are any indication, the Hippies are about as popular and well liked and accepted as a storm cloud in a crowded department store during a two-o'clock sale. Mr. Spectator gave his opinion on the situation after a recent trip to San Francisco. He termed it "the mess" in San Francisco. He brought back three copies of Hippie circulated "smut" sheets—tabloid newspapers and scores of unheeding residents have grabbed them. He published an objection to his beliefs which was signed by two University of Idaho students.

It was the publication of this "defense" of the Hippies that brought another wave of critical letters which Mr. Spectator had to wade through.

There just isn't room enough to print all of them on my regular column, so I thought of running them throughout the month. And both were selected. Mr. Spectator prints this one to let you know how the wind blows hereabouts and how the adult population seems to react about the situation.

So here goes—from a well-known Twin Falls resident—over 21 years old of course.

"Dear Spectator:

"I pity the young collegians who have the difficult task of maintaining a totally untenable position—perpetuation and adulteration of the Hippie movement. It proves only that colleges of education never prepare a person like the school of hard knocks."

"Comparing the unwashed with Christ, Francis of Assisi, Thomas Jefferson, etc., was pure straw grasping. In the instance of the first two, there are crying differences. Both are accorded exaltation and veneration by Christ. This is blasphemy in the worst way."

"Seaver led a life of complete personal sacrifice and concern for others. He taught us to be industrious, morally clean, honest, and all the virtues which he knew would bring joy and happiness into our lives. To allow ourselves to degenerate into a life of self indulgence is to personal grooming, lie around idle in the sun, possess no morals but react to every uncleanness which enters your mind which is greatly encouraged by pornographic literature and pictures, together with drugs, and alcohol, is Satan's way of life."

"Those who have conspired to destroy this great nation and the good things of their world must be deluged with the trend of things and welcome support from misguided youth. Should anyone in our Magic Valley area desire to become better informed regarding the evils of the Hippie movement, please call Paul, Director 733-0978, who has a fine little file which will really open your eyes. Many of the church and civic organizations have been shown this film."

"I am sure he will be happy to show it free of charge to any interested group. Mr. V. is a good man, I think."

"So there you have it. The form of the two letters printed is the same as the others which were not printed because Mr. Spectator just doesn't have that much room."

But he thought he'd pass this information along so you would know the thinking of those who held up as the shining examples of the cult since they had left and separated themselves from the world and practice pure subjectivity—a subjectivity to you!"

What Is Wrong With Parents?

WASHINGTON — A panel of distinguished students met at the University of Washington on a saturday to discuss what they consider the day of the day: "What is wrong with our parents?"

Cal Holden, class of '70, said the restlessness and unhappiness attributed to most parents are blamed on the "greed" of their parents.

"We haven't stood up to them," he said. "We let them buy us cars and clothes and pay our tuition and give us vacations, and the more we let them do for us, the more surely we are becoming like them."

"How afraid and insecure these youths must be. They have been afraid to plumb their personal capabilities to grow and lead. Instead they indulge their limitations and want someone to hand them Utopia."

The second letter selected for publication was not or less typical of the reaction also comes from an adult resident of this area.

When you spare the rod, you spoil the mother, I find," said the author.

"I think we're doing too much for our children," he said. "Parents are a minority of activists and parents are a majority of parents—and name."

Ho In Trouble, But Talks Aid

WASHINGTON (NEA)—From detailed information this reporter gathered in his recent trip to Southeast Asia, there is no doubt that Ho Chi Minh is in deep trouble.

He is facing dissatisfaction and a "greedy" population—at home. He is plagued with manpower shortages. Great dissatisfaction exists among North Vietnamese officials and middle-class citizens.

Ho Chi Minh is faced with a growing "greed" paralleling his junior-level executives, political and economic organizers.

Meanwhile, Ho is running up a heavy debt to Red China and the Soviet Union for arms, Chinese labor, and supplies that he can't afford.

With heavy aid commitment in Cuba, the Middle East and Africa, the Soviet Union is likewise feeling the pinch.

So Ho needs some sort of a respite to enable him to continue his war against South Vietnam.

Thus the Paris talks.

Just by agreeing to talk, Ho has persuaded the United States to continue bombing cutting off his supply lines.

Ho's army moves ahead now at an accelerated pace.

growing shortage of experienced officers and men. In his political underground, Ho has not been able to replace adequately the topflight leaders he has lost through death, desertion, or capture.

A growing "greed" pervades his army, which is faced with a bombing. This reduces his domestic strains, it has made it possible for Ho to step up the infiltration of troops and materials into South Vietnam.

Ho's first objective would be achieved by continuing these talks as long as possible so that the United States would continue bombing South Vietnam.

Star Of "Green Acres" Appears At Jackpot

Pat Butram, one of the stars of television's "Green Acres" program is kind of a latter-day Will Rogers type. Just as the late Mr. Rogers, Butram, currently appearing at Cactus Pete's in Jackpot, draws upon current events as the target for his wit.

Few politicians, in the course of Butram's conversation, escape the barb of his subtle wit.

For instance: "After Sen. Eugene McCarthy paid a visit to the White House, Lady Bird complained that a dove flew in her room."

"After Bobby (Kennedy) gets to be president, he's going to make his wife secretary of labor."

"I'll bet LBJ longs for the good old days when all he had to decide was what kind of bird set his hat."

Appearing with Butram at Cactus Pete's through Sunday is songstress Paity Casey. Miss Casey has just returned from entertaining the troops in Vietnam and also appears regularly on the Las Vegas night club circuit.

T. F. Singer Aids Career In Contest

A young Twin Falls miss who has aspirations for a show business career made a strong step in that direction when she won the title and $100 of a district singing contest this past weekend in Salt Lake City.

Becky Sullivan, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Sullivan, Route 3, Twin Falls, competed with other singers from the Salt Lake City area. There were contestants from four or five states entered in the singing competition sponsored by the Capitol Recording Co., Peterson Publishing Co., and the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

Three district winners were selected in the Superette Talent Search. Miss Sullivan, a male vocalist and a vocal group. Tapes of the singing will be sent to Hollywood, Calif., for national competition.

Miss Sullivan, who dabbles in composing, will be sending three tapes to Hollywood, including a song she composed, "It Didn't Take Long."

She said the song has "kind of a rock beat," but she sings all types of songs. She is also an amateur actress on the guitar. She also plays the piano.

As one of the district winners Miss Sullivan received a Touch and Sew sewing machine by Singer and a Capitol record library.

The national winners will receive a Pontiac Firebird, custom-made with TV, record player and stereo equipment, and a color television; and several thousand dollars worth of Vox equipment, including amplifiers, instruments and speakers.

Cactus Pete's is his first night club appearance, but you'd never know it. One of his charms is that he gives the feeling, even while doing a stand-up routine, that he is just visiting with his audience.

Women Find Many Ways To Raise Funds

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — A group of University of Idaho women managed to turn $80 into $386 by various means.

Each woman was loaned $1 by the local branch of the American Association of University Women to invest in a project to raise money for the university's Performing Arts Center.

One woman produced the highest return by using her dollar to buy an advertisement to sell kittens.

Another made and sold carpet bags. One sold recipes.

And one picked the winner in the Kentucky Derby.

Educators from a five-state area will meet during the next six months to develop the program to help bring about major improvements in teacher education in the Northwest, he said.

The project will be funded by the U.S. Office of Health, Education and Welfare.

Miss Hartley, Kluender Wed

Judith Joann Hartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hartley, Twin Falls, was married to Steven E. Kluender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kluender, Jerome, in a double-ring ceremony May 7 at the First Baptist Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. James B. Hughes and Rev. Gaylord Hasselblad performed the ceremony before an altar setting decorated with carnations and white stock. White topiary trees with touches of blue stood in large white jardinieres at each side of the chancel. Candelabra with blue tapers were at each side of the kneeling bench.

Mrs. Dale Snow was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Frank McMullen, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Bridal Original gown, refashioned by the bride's mother. The imported lace over taffeta gown was enhanced with hand set sequins at the neckline and waistline, while a sash of blue and white stripes was draped at the back. White satin handmade roses were used to catch and drape the train.

Her fingertip veil of tulip was banded by two roses of imported lace and held by a crown of white carnations and carnations.

She carried a bouquet of 10 white orchids tied with satin ribbons, sent from California by the bridegroom's cousin at "Norsted" Florist Co.

Male of honor was Katherine Sharral, with Sharon McCabe, bride's maid of honor. Mrs. James Worthey served as bridesmaid. Candlelighters were James DeGree and William Dove.

Robin Snow was flower girl, carrying a white lace-trimmed basket containing blue rose petals. She was joined by Thelma Sievers who carried the rings and encircled with blue net and blue velvet. Forget-Me-Nots. The cake was flanked by can-

Daniel Kluender, brother of the bridegroom, Leonard Crismore, cousin of the bridegroom, and James Worthey served as ushers.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

With Carol Turner registering guests, Helen Kuykendall and Anna Biggs assisted at the gift table.

The bride's table was skirted with white embroidered nylon and covered with white linen and lace. It was centered with the four-tiered wedding cake.

The bride's cake was decorated with silver leaves and topped with a tiny white dove hovering over each rose.

Mrs. V. T. Crismore, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee.

Carolyn Thomas, cousin of the bridegroom, served punch. Debbie Cooley distributed rice bags made of blue net.

Out-of-town guests attended from Oregon, California, Washington, Pocatello, Buhl, Filer, Jerome, Kimberly and Murray.

The couple took a wedding trip to the Sun Valley and Honolulu, Hawaii, and will reside at 323 McNeil St., Honolulu.

Pre-nuptial showers hosted for the bride include a personal shower given by Mrs. James Worthey and a miscellaneous shower hosted by Mrs. Don Hines, Mrs. Albert Sharral and Katherine Sharral. The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Griggs Cafe, Idaho Room.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's 10-year-old son is in high school but he has a very good job at the mill. His name keeps coming up for promotion as he is very smart, but here is the problem:

He never learned how to read and write. Someone he managed to get by in school, but in summer, he can't figure out mathematical problems in his head and knows history dates and events like a college graduate. He listens to the news on the radio and is up on everything, but when it comes to reading, he doesn't know dog from cat.

I have tried to teach him, but it's hopeless. His boss keeps after him to take tests for advancement, but my husband keeps ducking them because he doesn't want anyone to know he can't read and write. I filled in his application for him. That's how he got his job in the first place! How can I help him? He feels so ashamed because of his ignorance.

His WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Your husband's problem is not unusual, I think. He could have a "mental block" due to an emotional problem, which is nothing to be ashamed of. Find out what is available for adults through your local board of public education. Your husband is too self-conscious to attend classes, perhaps private tutoring can be arranged.

DEAR ABBY: Is it all right to ask for gifts back that were given to a girl for a wedding that never took place?

The girl is the daughter of a friend of mine who was going to be married rather suddenly four months ago, so to help out some friends and I got together some blankets, linens, towels and dishes so she could start her new life.

The wedding was called off as suddenly as it was announced, and the girl is back in school again, like nothing happened.

Naturally, we all expected our gifts to be returned right away, but they weren't. One of the other women who contributed said she asked the girl's mother for her gift back and all she got was a blank stare. Should I ask for mine?

Sweaters Are Glamorized For Coming Season

GLENNS FERRY — "Fro m stretch tights to fur-trimmed coats, this is a knit year," says Miss Esther Nystrom, clothing specialist of the University of Idaho Extension Service. "Sweaters have been glamorized with every kind of trim from sequins, pearls, bugle beads and painted designs to leather and synthetic fur."

For many years the sweater world was ruled by wool, cashmere and mohair. The grave and give good warmth and wear and cleaning. "Today we find many synthetic fibers" in both bulky and plain knit sweaters, and "bulky-knits" are in vogue," she added. They are made of yarns treated chemically or physically to give greater volume and bulk. "Many of the yarns can be stretched."

Stability of a knit sweater depends on many factors, dry cleaners have found. Fiber content, yarn construction, type of knit stitch and care in wearing and cleaning are all points of consideration.

If a wool sweater shrinks or stretches during washing or cleaning, it is usually possible to block it to size. This is not possible with some of the synthetic yarns. If it is on a hanger, the sweater may stretch out of shape. It may stretch if pulled while it is moist with steam. The sweater cannot be reblocked to shape.

However, laboratories working on textile analysis have found that some sweaters made of a size, report Mrs. Marilyn E. Jordan, Elmore County extension home economics agent.

Yankees And Washington Trade Wins

NEW YORK (AP) — Home runs by Fred Valentine, Ed Stroud and Bernie Allen helped Washington to a 6-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the second game of a doubleheader Thursday.

The Yankees won the opener 15-6. Mickey Mantle whacked two homers, a double and two singles and drove in five runs.

The second-game triumph broke the Senators' five-game losing streak and the Yankees' five-game win streak and prevented the Yanks from reaching the .500 mark. Mark Pascual, 4-4, went eight innings and scattered three hits.

Douglas, by Stroud and Frank Howard off loser Fred Talbot, 6-6, tied the score in the third inning and Valentine put the Senators ahead 2-1 in the fourth with his third home run. Stroud's homer, his fourth of the season and second of the day, made it 3-1 an inning later.

Washington scored three more runs in the fifth.

Mantle's performance in the opener was his first 5-for-5 day since 1956. He homered with a runner aboard in the first and with the bases empty in the fifth.

The two homers, gave Mantle six for the season and increased his career total to 524, only 10 less than Jimmie Foxx. 53 on the all-time list.

the squeeze bridge until she got it. In the middle, Midge started by drawing trumps with three leads and discarding one heart from dummy on the third trump.

She had decided that if there were a squeeze, it would be in spades and diamonds. Next she took the diamond finesse. It worked and business was looking up.

She cashed dummy's remaining high spade and ruffed a spade in her own hand. When East dropped the nine things began to look up. Well, she started with five spades. If there were no squeeze was there. Midge led a heart to dummy's king and a second heart back to her ace. Then she played out her last two trumps.

She was able to get into a heart lead on the first of three trumps. On the second he had to let a diamond go in order to keep his high spade. A diamond to the ace dropped West's king and the jack of diamonds was the 13th trick.

CARD SENSE

[Midge (Mrs. Sewall) Cutler of Dallas followed these precepts in bidding her hand. She is a member of seven clubs with a life in over 1000 hands but she had become unduly encouraged when her partner had first bid diamonds and then followed with spades.

Midge did have a good hand but when she looked over dummy she didn't like what she saw. She had no spades and only seven unless the diamond fitness worked. On the other hand, if it did work she apparently was one trick short unless the king of diamonds would drop doubleton or unless a squeeze could develop.

There was no reason to cross.

The children had IQs from 92 to 110.

The children were divided into two groups—one with a white mother and father dolls and a white baby doll, the other with black mother and father dolls and black baby dolls.

Diamond found no significant difference between the two groups in the time the children took to decide that the dolls were father, mother and child in one family. Nor was there an attempt to reject the black doll by children with prejudiced parents, high IQs or both.

Several psychologists and psychiatrists, when they heard what Diamond planned, had predicted he would find at least some white 5-year-olds already marked by prejudice.

"It appears that no matter what the child hears at home, if he gets into an integrated school system enough, he will still be able to develop relatively free of prejudice," Diamond said in an interview.

He says racial prejudice "stunts a child's development because it requires constant emotional effort to justify attitudes that basically go against nature."
